Burns & Levinson Attorney Receives Citation from Governor Patrick

Boston, MA – Burns & Levinson LLP, a Boston-based leading law firm with offices in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, proudly announces that Partner Ellen J. Zucker has received a Governor’s Citation from Deval Patrick in recognition of her “dedicated service as President of the MassEquality board of directors and in appreciation of [her] commitment to equal rights in the Commonwealth.” The citation was personally signed by both the Governor and Lieutenant Governor and delivered via Suzanne Bump, the Secretary of Labor. Ms. Zucker chaired MassEquality during the height of its successful campaign to protect equal marriage rights in Massachusetts.

Ms. Zucker’s practice focuses in the areas of employment law, business litigation and white collar criminal defense. She represents executives and professionals, as well as construction and social service workers, private businesses and public charities. Ms. Zucker received her J.D. from Boston College Law School in 1994 and clerked for Federal District Court Judge Nancy Gertner. Ms. Zucker received her M.S. in Political Theory from the London School of Economics and Political Science and her B.A. from Wesleyan University.
