Burns & Levinson LLP Welcomes New Partner, Bruce D. Jobse

Boston, MA – Burns & Levinson LLP, a Boston-based leading law firm with offices in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, announces that Bruce D. Jobse has joined the firm as a Partner. “Bruce is one of the best known, most experienced patent lawyers in Boston. He brings additional technical expertise to our patent group and also the ability to work strategically with businesses and entrepreneurs in managing and protecting their intellectual property. He will be a great asset to our firm and our clients,” said David Rosenblatt, managing partner.

Mr. Jobse stated, “I am thrilled to be part of Burns & Levinson. This firm offers an exceptional platform for any intellectual property attorney, with significant depth of expertise across all facets of IP and business law. I am honored to be here.”

Bruce Jobse has over twenty years experience in the intellectual property field, including working as a corporate patent counsel with IBM Corporation. Mr. Jobse is also a former co-founding partner of the well-known intellectual property firm, Kudirka & Jobse (currently known as Rissman Hendricks Olivero LLP). Prior to this, he practiced at Wolf Greenfield.

Mr. Jobse prepares, prosecutes and maintains patent and trademark portfolios for clients, which range from individual inventors to large multinational corporations. His areas of focus include mechanical, electromechanical and electronic technologies, computer hardware and software, operating system architectures, networking, telecommunications, Voice Over Internet Protocol (VoIP) systems, multimedia systems, audio and video signal processing, business methods, including electronic commerce and financial transactions, medical devices and other related technologies. Mr. Jobse has extensive experience in software licensing, technology transfer agreements, and trade secret protection. He also renders infringement and validity opinions and counsels clients regarding litigation.

Mr. Jobse received a J.D., cum laude, from Suffolk University Law School in 1990. He received a B.S., Computer Engineering, from Boston University College of Engineering.
