Burns & Levinson LLP Welcomes New Partner, Scott H. Moskol

Boston, MA – Burns & Levinson LLP, a Boston-based leading law firm with offices in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, announces that Scott H. Moskol has joined the firm as a Partner. “Scott’s wealth of experience in overseeing a public company’s commercial loan portfolio adds depth to our Bankruptcy, Corporate and Finance practices. He will be a great asset to our firm and our clients,” said David P. Rosenblatt, Managing Partner.

“I am thrilled to be part of Burns & Levinson. This firm offers an exceptional platform for any business attorney, with significant expertise across all facets of bankruptcy, commercial and business law. I am honored to be here,” Mr. Moskol stated.

Scott Moskol has over fifteen years experience in the corporate and bankruptcy fields, including serving as Vice President, Senior Asset Manager and Counsel for Capital Crossing, formerly a division of Lehman Brothers Bank, F.S.B/Capital Crossing Servicing Company, LLC. Prior to this, he practiced at Mintz Levin Cohn Ferris Glovsky and Popeo, P.C. While there, Mr. Moskol represented investors and other institutional clients in matters pertaining primarily to commercial and bankruptcy law, fixed income investments and corporate debt reorganizations and workouts. He counseled a national client base on debt offerings, director and officer liability, restructuring and bankruptcy issues, corporate structure and governance, transaction and acquisition issues. Mr. Moskol also has extensive experience drafting, negotiating and litigating public and private debt offerings and related documentation.

Mr. Moskol received a J.D. from the Emory University School of Law in 1992 and A.B. from Brown University in 1989.
